

Courses and talks

Time	Activity	Description	Place
17.00-17.30	"Upgrade your writing!"	Lecturer Gillian Warner-Søderholm has supervised many bachelor theses. She will talk about what characterizes a good thesis, and what pitfalls to avoid.	Entrance C5, the library
18.00-21.00	Shut up & write!	Do you find it difficult getting started writing your assignment? Join this communal writing session where you work concentrated for 20 minutes, followed by a 10-minute break. Continue writing for another 20 minutes, then 10-minute break and so on. Every session starts on the hour or half-hour. Join in any break, and stay for as many sessions as you like.	Quiet reading room B5, the library
18.15-19.15	Cite like a pro with Endnote	EndNote Online is a web-based software for storing and managing references. It also allows you to Cite While You Write with Word. Come to this course and learn how citing your sources can be made easy.	Quiet reading room B6, the library

Help & tutoring

17.00-21.00	Ask IT	IT tutors help you with anything from Word to printing.	C5, the library
17.00-21.00	Beyond Google – find literature for your assignment	Need help finding literature, statistics or data which may help you build your arguments? Bring your question and a librarian will help you find relevant sources.	C6, the library
17.00-21.00	Citing and referencing	Are you doubting a source or unsure if your citation is correct? Stop by our citing and referencing bar to get help.	C6, the library
17.00-21.00	Writing center and tutoring	Student tutors help you to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Formulate good texts - Get an overview of the curriculum - Understand the curriculum - Discuss topics from different courses 	C6, the library
18.00-21.00	Qualtrics and Jmp	Are you going to send out a survey, but don't know how to create it? Bjørn can help you with challenges with Qualtrics and the statistic software Jmp.	The veranda in C5, the library

NB! Speak Norwegian? Check out the Norwegian program for more activities.